

LEE LADS WIN AT FOOTBALL

Eugene Field Scores First but Opponent Makes Sensational Comeback.

HIGH SCHOOL LEAGUE STANDINGS
School	W	L	Pct.
Jefferson	2	0	1.000
Grant	1	1	.500
Beston	1	1	.500
Lee	1	1	.500
Field	0	2	.000

Eugene Field School remained in the cellar position in the Columbia grade school football league yesterday afternoon when the Lee School eleven won an exciting contest by the score of 28 to 19 on Carthorn Field.

Only a few minutes had been played before Field took the ball down the field for a touchdown, and everything looked as if Field were going to win, but the Lee lads bucked up and made a sensational comeback with two touchdowns. They were not headed after that. Both teams were weak on the defensive. Brown, tackle on the Field team, being the only player that showed any signs of defensive playing.

The two teams were strong on the offensive. Frutstone, quarterback on the Lee team, played the most brilliant game. Jefferson and Grant will play on Carthorn Field tomorrow afternoon. If Grant can defeat Jefferson, the two teams will be tied for first place.

KERSHAW OUT OF GAME FOR REST OF YEAR

Scannell Is Doing Good Work at Piloting Position—Bunker and Adams Hurt Knees.

GO TO NEBRASKA NEXT

Three More Practice Sessions Before Playing Hardest Game—To Change Line-Up.

With Missouri one game in the lead over all other contenders for Valley honors, the big question this week is, "How about Nebraska?"

The accumulating reports of confidence from the Husker camp only tend to thicken the clouds which hang over Mis-sur's conference sky. And added to the list of troubles comes the injured roll of Tigers who went down in the battle with Ames Saturday. Missourians may well gloat over the victory, for it came at a great cost.

With Elmer Kershaw consigned to the benches for the rest of the season, the most vulnerable point in the 1922 Tiger machine is hit. While Bob Scannell is doing creditably in Kershaw's piloting position, the loss of the veteran is irreplaceable. Trainer "Doc" Lawler announced last night that Kershaw would be out for the season.

Kershaw has a broken bone in one foot. His injury occurred Saturday in the latter part of the third quarter after he had received a forward flip from Lincoln. "Red" had just turned to sprint after receiving the ball when he was struck by an Ames tackler and thrown high in the air, turning completely over. The tackler lost his hold and instinctively Kershaw attempted to regain his feet and continue with the ball when he was struck again and disabled.

Captain Bunker, playing a stellar game at tackle, paid to the town with a badly wrenched knee which may keep him out of the Nebraska tilt Saturday. Lawler said last night that Bunker's knee might heal in time to warrant his entry into part of the contest, but it is not regarded as probable.

While practically the whole team came home bearing marks of the Ames fight, "Tin" Adams is the last of the seriously injured. Adams has a wrenched knee which will slow him up for several days this week.

CREDIT TO SCANNELL

Going into the Ames fray in the heat of the game, and with practically no practice in the Varsity first string, Scannell deserves credit for his ability in managing the final session of the game. He kept his head, and called plays through the most vulnerable spots in the town's line that culminated in Lincoln's winning kick in the last few minutes of play. It is probable that Kelly will groom him for a regular at the quarter position, barring the chance of shifts from the extreme backfield.

Much credit goes to Trainer Lawler for his speed in releasing the numerous cases which go through his department. A wave of satisfaction comes from the announcement that Tony Bundschu, veteran back, and Harry Schwimmer, a probable regular end, will both be ready for the Nebraska whistle. Bundschu has had a phenomenal recovery with a dislocated shoulder, cutting down the time allotted for his vacation nearly three weeks. Schwimmer has been out with a bad ankle since the Grinnell game.

LINEUP MAY BE SHIFTED

Only three more practice sessions remain before the Tigers extrain for the invasion of Nebraska, reputed by many authorities to have one of the strongest football aggregations in the country. Last night Coach Kelly put his charges through a light signal practice, devoting some time to the forward pass. Tomorrow, the Varsity will scrimmage against the Husker plays as interpreted by Captain Duncle's freshmen.

Roscoe Hill, who has been holding an end position, may be consigned back to his old tackle station if Bunker fails to be in condition by Saturday. Van Dyne will probably start as the other tackle. If Schwimmer goes in at end Saturday, either Walsh or Adams will probably appear at the other wing station. Smith will be a fixture at center, barring injuries, and Lewis and Palermo are probable starters at guard. No change is probable in the backfield excepting Scannell's substitution for Kershaw.

PHI PSI AND SIGMA CHI INTO BASEBALL FINALS

Three-Game Series to Decide Winner of Interfraternity Tournament.

The Phi Psi won from the Phi Gamma in the semi-finals of the interfraternity baseball tournament yesterday afternoon, 4 to 1. This leaves the Phi Psi's and the Sigma Chi to play the finals for the cup. The finals will be a three-game series.

Castle and P. Shuster pitched good ball for both sides and would not have allowed many runs except for errors. Evans, playing first base for the Phi Psi, made a double play unassisted.

The line-up was as follows: Phi Psi: Putnam, 1b; Brown, 2b; Wakefield, 3b; Castle, p; Shepard, ss; Rowette, cf; Peck, c; Robinson, rf.

Phi Gamma: Delta—Waddell, cf; Fordyce, 1b; B. Shuster, c; Evans, 1b; Lewis, 2b; Ferguson, 3b; Decker, ss; Hall, rf; P. Shuster, p.

Umpires: Wild, Roberts and Langdon.

C. H. S. SENIORS WIN, 14-6

Juniors Defeated in First Interclass Game of Season.

The Columbia High School senior class team defeated the junior class team in the first inter-class game on Carthorn field yesterday by the score of 14 to 6. No players on the school's first team were allowed to play on either class team.

The sophomores and the freshmen will play Thursday afternoon.

Each class will play three games, the team with the highest percentage at the end of the season winning a school trophy.

TRAGOS MAY MEET CADDOCK

Former Heavy-Weight Champion Asks for Month to Train Before Bout.

Earl Caddock, former heavy-weight wrestling champion of the world, will, in all probability, be the next opponent of George Tragos, heavy-weight and middle-weight champion of Missouri.

While no definite arrangements for the match have been made, Caddock has signified his willingness to meet the Columbia man, in Columbia, for a handicap bout, guaranteeing to win two falls in ninety minutes or forfeit $1,000. Recognizing a tough customer in Tragos, the popular Iowa has asked for three weeks or a month in which to train.

Tragos has not accepted Caddock's terms, preferring a finish match with no forfeit provisions, but according to Peter James, promoter of the match and manager of Tragos, there will be no difficulty in negotiating the terms.

Tragos has held Caddock to one fall in an hour and eight minutes, losing that only after sustaining severe injuries. He is now in perfect condition.

Saturday night Tragos was dared into a match with Chris Jordan at Centralia. He and Jordan had been friends and had even trained together, but when, after he had gone to Centralia merely to see his friend wrestle, the crowd and Jordan's circus manager urged him into a match, in Tragos words, "Friendship ceased."

After he had twisted out of a severe headlock, after half an hour's wrestling, he managed to secure his favorite hold, a hammerlock, and had the tatted Jordan in a bad way. Then, before he could settle the affair with a fall, the lights went out and terminated what Tragos calls the hardest match of his life—a match with no money, but supremacy, at stake.

KEWPIE TEAM IS CRIPPLED

Three Star Men Are Injured—To Play Kirksville Friday.

The Columbia Kewpie will present a battered and crippled team to Kirksville Friday afternoon when they meet the Kirksville High School squad in the hardest game on the Kewpie schedule.

Max Woods, Coach Blumer's star end, will be unable to play, according to an announcement last night. Woods injured his leg during scrimmage and will need much rest before he can scrimmage again.

Fish, fullback, who was badly battered in the Carrollton game, may play Friday, although he will be kept out of scrimmage this week.

Captain Dick Clark, guard, received a bad bone bruise on his hip yesterday afternoon when he tried to spike a freshman in the scrimmage with the University freshmen. He may not be able to play in the Kirksville game.

The team will leave Thursday afternoon, returning to Columbia Saturday morning.

POLITICS INFLUENCES DEMPSEY BOXING BOUT

Fight With Wills Fails After Rumor Involves Republicans—Will Hold It Next Year.

New York.—Difficulty in getting Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills into the ring to settle the heavyweight championship question has been attributed to numerous causes.

However, it has been learned from the most reliable information that Dempsey was eager to give the negro a chance this summer, but that he was prevented by activities of Republican politicians.

The administration at Albany did not want the fight staged before election time, because the reform element would get up on its rear legs if the bout came off and the liberal element would be just as provoked if any official obstacles were placed in the way, according to this story.

The rumor was spread that Governor Miller would not sanction a mixed bout. This rumor had to be stopped, because of its effect on the negro voters of New York. At the last election, Mayor Hylan carried two big negro districts and it was the first time that those districts had turned from the Republican party. To counteract the Democratic propaganda Governor Miller said that he had no objection to a fight between a white man and a negro and that he hoped the better man would win.

The ideal way was to have it appear that Dempsey didn't want to fight Kears, on the promise that he could have the fight in New York next summer, agreed to take the role of holding the bag.

Finally the sharp tongues worked under the hide of Kears and he said he was ready to fight on two weeks' notice, but that no promoter had made him an offer.

That was a harmless statement until John O'Connor, the head of the club at the Polo Grounds, came through with an offer for the fight. The politicians were then ready to sign an agreement, had unofficially given its approval for the mixed bout and a promoter was willing to stage the bout.

Kears could do nothing more, but the commission then delivered another punch at the bout by naming impossible conditions. The chairman of the commission asked for an arena that would seat 100,000, and there will be nothing of that size in New York until next summer, when the new Yankee stadium will be available.

Another political stroke was made when the commission demanded 40,000 seats at $2. The ward workers told the voters in the negro district that the commission and the governor would make it their business to see that the negroes got to see that fight.

That ended the negotiations.
